

Please DO NOT allow cell phone use aboard airborne aircraft. It is very annoying to have cell phones in restaurants and just about everywhere you go. In an airplane it is hard enough to deal with the small space and uncomfortable seating without having to listen to people all around you talking on their phones with raised voices to be heard over all the noise. Most people like to read or rest or talk quietly to their companions. Please don't change this.